It in a few minutes mounted to over $45 a bale, but considerable disposition was shown to absorb offerings at the lower level and as sellers were a bit shy recovery of part of the loss followed. Around levels approximating hair a cent to the bad traders seemed mixed in their views and fluctuations were kept within a marrow range and with trading light.

Following the triple holiday interest centered aimost entirely in the corning of the condition report. There had been although the trend of it as to labor and industrial conditions in this country was toward a more optimistic view of things. Apparently the radical elements to the indicated crop of 11,230,006 bales were not in the ascendancy and a serious effort is inflored way to solve one of last week.

industrial conditions in this country was toward a more optimistic whew of things. Apparently the radical elements were not in the ascendancy and a serious effort is under way to solve some of the problems without resorting to violence or trying of things that are entirely new and revolutionary.

The fissh of 61.4 found traders ready for liquidation if there was not to be a surprise as was seen a mosth ago. This showed that deterioration for the month was less than normal. It amounting to 5.1, whereas average is something over 7 per cent. However, the buils had the arguments of the crop's lateness and the probability of heavier deterioration during September than usual to help offset the other. The details of the report were of little interest and attention turned quickly to other things.

December, which opened in New York 31.95c and had sold as high as 32.19c, started downward and touched as low as 30.90c, while October went down from $1.84c to 30.40c, both quickly recovering part of the decline. December seemed to steady around $2c and a little better, selling as high at $2.30c in the early afternoon.

Liverpool came at some decline early, reling as high at 32.30c in the early afternoon.

Liverpool came at some decline early, but closed steady at a net loss of 38 to 48 points, having a few minutes in which to reflect views as to the bureau report. Spots were marked up a point, middling to 19.12d, with sales 4,000 bales, including 2,400 American. Receipts were 7,000 bales, including 3,400 American, Manchester advised that cloths were doll and garns dull and irregular, but private press reports told of more activity in manufacturing, due to subsidence of labor troubles. The weather map this morning was a good one, though showing some rather low temperatures in most sections, this helping to check maturity of young fruit. There were no rains scarcely and indications were for conditions to continue favorable and to slightly warm up. NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK Sept. 2.—A more favorable view of labor conditions and expectations of a small crop estimate from the government led to a steady opening in the cotton market today. Liverpool was relatively easy over the holidays but first prices here were 11 to 21 points higher. With December selling at 32.05c and January at 31.95c after the call. The easier opening of serling exchange was a disappointing feature and there was enough realizing to cause some irregularity before the publication of the government report, but prices were generally well sustained during the early session.

The government report making condition 61.4 and the crop indication 11.230.000 bales, was closely in line with private reports issued last week, but was followed by heavy general soiling. December broke to 30.90 and January to 30.85, or 105 to 115 points from Saturday's closing figures and stop loss orders were uncovered. After their execution, however, there were railies of 30 to 40 points on trade buying or covering with the market comparatively quiet and steady around midday.

Trading continued quiet early in the afternoon and there was little further change in prices with December ruling around 31.15c, or about 25 points up from the lower.

Futures closed steady at a decline of

Bullish Crop Estimates Cause Early Show of Firmness

CHICAGO, Sept 2—Builish crop estimates gave an upward turn today to the corn market except for the September delivery. Liberal receipts here tended to make the September delivery weak. Opening prices which ranged from 1%c lower to %c higher, with September $1.7% and December $1.5% to $1.5%, were followed by moderate upturnings in December and May and continued weakness in September.

Liquidation by holders of September contracts leed afterward to sharp declines in December and May. The market closed heavy 1%c to 5%c net lower, with September $1.5%. December $1.32%.

Higher quotations on hogs gave a if to provisions.

Later the hog market declined as compared with yesterday and the gains a provisions were partly lost as a re-

11,230,000 BALE CROP

continuous rains over considerable areas of the belt with dry, hot weather following the heavy rains, caused the deterioration of the crop.

In Virginia, Georgia and Florida the decline was heaviest, being 11 points in Virginia and 12 in Georgia. In Alabama it was nine points and in North Carolina and Texas, six points.

Sea island cotton in Georgia and Florida practically has been destroyed by boll weevils, which are now damaging the crop in South Carolina, having appeared on the islands off the coast.

Last month the crop was forecast at 11.016,000 bales, with the condition 67.1 per cent of a normal, while the July report forecast a production of 10,886,000 bales with the condition 70.0.
